INFO

Sept.-Nov. 1980 6140 Lincoln Ave. Morton Grove, Ill. 965-4220

DEDICATION

The Morton Grove Public Library cordially invites everyone to the Dedication of the Library Addition on Sunday, September 21 at 2:00 P.M.

The keynote speaker will be Rev. Conway Ramseyer of the Morton Grove Community Church. The Invocation will be given by Fr. Faucher of St. Martha's Catholic Church and the Benediction by Rabbi Charney of the Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation. The program will include the dedication of the addition as a village historical site.

Tours of the new addition will be given after the Dedication and refreshments will be served by the Friends of the Library.

MORTON GROVE CELEBRATION

To begin the Fall season in its new Baxter Meeting Room, the Morton Grove Public Library will present a "Morton Grove Celebration", a series of programs highlighting the residents of Morton Grove who have special talents and abilities. Artists, writers, and lecturers will present programs and exhibits of interest to everyone in our town.

MEET THE AUTHORS

In September and October, a unique group of Morton Grove authors will discuss their works.

On Tuesday, September 30 at 7:30 P.M., JEANNINE OESTREICH will give a lecture on "SEXUAL HARASSMENT." Ms. Oestreich is a Management Consultant and the co-author of "Sexual Harassment at Work," to be published in January 1981. She is a former school board member of District 63.

DR. IRWIN GINSBURGH will discuss his book "FIRST,MAN. THEN, ADAM!" on Tuesday, Oct. 7 at 7:30 P.M. Dr. Ginsburgh is a physicist with the Research Dept. of a major oil company and holds many patents in industrial development.

His book documents the fusion of science and the Bible in the creation of the world and was published in 1975. He will also give a lecture at the Library on Tuesday, Dec. 2 on "THE HISTORY OF ENERGY PRICES."

CARL W. CONDIT will present a lecture on "CHICAGO ARCHITECTURE, PAST AND PRESENT" on Sunday, October 19 at 3:00 P.M. A well-known historian of building, technology, and structural engineering, CARL CONDIT is professor of history, urban affairs, and art at Northwestern University.

He has written many books on urban architecture, including "Chicago, 1930-70", "The Chicago School of Architecture", and "The Rise of the Skyscraper."

JAMES BROSNAN is well-known in the sports world not only as a former Cubs and White Sox baseball pitcher, but also as a sports-writer and commentator, and he will discuss "ATHLETES AS WRITERS" on Thursday, October 23 at 7:30 P.M.

He will include the writings of Dave Kingman and Jim Bouton as well as his own books on baseball, which include "The Long Season" and "Pennant Race."

REGULAR LIBRARY HOURS, INCLUDING FRIDAY EVENINGS AND SUNDAY AFTERNOONS, WILL RESUME ON SEPTEMBER 2.

MEET THE COMPOSER

A celebration of Morton Grove talent would not be complete without a musician and Howard Sandroff is not only a gifted musician, but a unique composer as well. He will present a discussion and demonstration of his work on Tuesday, October 28 at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Sandroff, who grew up in Morton Grove, received his Master's Degree in Music from Roosevelt University and has been composing ever since. He writes art music that uses electronics and has composed scores for dance, theater, television and film.

MORTON GROVE HISTORY

Fred Huscher, Retiring Chief of the Morton Grove Fire Dept. is also a source of Morton Grove history and will present a lecture and slide presentation on "EARLY MORTON GROVE HISTORY" on Thursday, Nov. 6 at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Huscher's family emigrated to Morton Grove from Germany in 1842. He has many artifacts and his knowledge of the early days in our village should make a fascinating program!

BOOK REVIEWS

Our resident book reviewer, Barbara Todd, will present a review of the stunning autobiography of actor Sidney Poitier, entitled "THIS LIFE" on Sunday, Oct. 12 at 2:30 and on Monday, Oct. 13 at 7:30 P.M.

Sidney Poitier holds the unique position of being the first black actor to break through Hollywood's racism and emerge as a great star and a beacon for the black actors who followed.

His story is full of humor, strength, and great honesty - don't miss "THIS LIFE!"

***

The struggle of a housewife and mother to obtain an education and identity will be portrayed by Mrs. Todd when she reviews the new novel "EMBER DAYS" by Margaret Bonanno on Sun. Nov. 23 at 2:30 and on Mon., Nov. 24 at 7:30. The novel is a fascinating look at Irish-Catholic family life over four generations and is the inspiring story of a determined woman, striving to break the stranglehold of her family and her church on her life.

--COMING--

December 7 - INTERNATIONAL DAY, featuring ethnic arts and crafts from Morton Grove residents. If you wish to participate, please call Ila Nuccio at 965-5886.

FRIENDS OF THE MORTON GROVE LIBRARY

The FRIENDS OF THE MORTON GROVE LIBRARY will host the formal opening of the new addition to the Library on September 21. This long-awaited event will serve as an open house to demonstrate the improved facilities which will be available for the use and pleasure of all of us.

Hosting this event is one of the many services offered by the members of the FRIENDS. New members are cordially welcome to participate in all our activities. For further information, contact Beverly Copeland at 967-8433.

Just a reminder: There will be a Board Meeting of the FRIENDS on Sept. 8 at 7:30 P.M. at the Library.

ART EXHIBITS

The Morton Grove Celebration will feature exhibits of several talented Morton Grove artists, beginning with the paintings of Othelia Edelblut, a long-time resident. Her one-person show will begin on Thurs., Sept. 4 and continue through Sept. 29. Her exhibition will range from the academic to abstract expressionism and will use a wide range of techniques and subjects.

Mrs. Edelblut has been painting most of her life and has studied at the Art Institute and the American Academy of Art.

The second exhibit will be that of the sculptures of Alfred Burlini, a distinguished Morton Grove artist. His works will be on view at the Library from Oct. 1 through Oct. 20.

Mr. Burlini's bronze sculptures have won awards at exhibits throughout Chicago and are noted for their graceful, flowing lines.

The Morton Grove Art Guild will exhibit a variety of paintings created by their members on Oct. 21 through Nov. 26.

BABY-SITTING WORKSHOP

The Fall Baby-Sitting Workshop will begin on Friday, Sept. 12 at 4:00 and will again be conducted by the Morton Grove Fire Dept. Registration will begin on Tues., Sept. 2.

The class is open to anyone in 6th grade and above, including adults, and will continue through Oct. 24, at which time graduation will be held.

--COMING--

December 9 - Travelogue on SWEDEN! Featuring the Nordic Folk Dancers of Chicago!!!

ESP TESTING

Do you think that you have some ESP ability? Would you like to find out for sure? Then, come to a program on "ESP TESTING" on Tues, Sept. 23 at 7:30 P.M.

Ellen Marks believes that most people have some type of Extra Sensory Perception and that they can demonstrate their ability during controlled test situations. She is compiling a serious study of data in this field and is conducting tests of adults, age 16 and older. She has a degree in psychology and was on the Board of Directors for the Illinois Society for Psychic Research.

Ms. Marks' test will include telepathy, precognition, and clairvoyance and all participants will be immediately informed of their ratings. Everyone is welcome to come and learn a little more about themselves, free of charge!

ADULT FEATURE FILMS

A brilliant series of adult feature films will be shown on Wednesdays at 2:30 and 7:30 at the Library. Included will be such offerings as "FUNNY FACE" and "THE BRIDGE ON THE RIVER KWAI". Highlight of the series will be a 6-part presentation of "THE SIX WIVES OF HENRY VIII", beginning on Wed., Sept. 10.

These award-winning films will follow the courtly and private lives of King Henry and Catherine of Aragon, Anne Boleyn, Jane Seymour, Anne of Cleves, Catherine Howard, and Catherine Parr. For a complete listing of all films, please consult the Calendar on Page 2.

THE TRUCK IS COMING!!!

What is THE TRUCK? THE TRUCK, INC. is a professional performing arts company which will present the revue, "GETTING TOGETHER WITH SHAKESPEARE" on Sunday, November 16 at 2:30 P.M.

Complete with Elizabethan music and dancing, as well as excerpts from Shakespeare's plays, this delightful program will entertain both children and adults.

Consisting of seven talented performers, THE TRUCK was formed in 1969 under the joint sponsorship of Northwestern University and Urban Gateways and has performed live for over one million people! Don't miss this great family show - THE TRUCK!!

MENTAL HEALTH SERIES

The "middle-age crisis" will highlight a series of discussions on the various stages of adulthood, to be presented by counselors from Orchard Mental Health Center on Monday evenings at 7:30 throughout Oct. and November.

On Monday, Oct. 20, Olga Kreisberg will speak on "VALUES OF THE YOUTH GENERATION" and on Monday, Oct. 27, Carol Zimbelman will discuss "DEALING WITH MARITAL STRESS."

"DIVORCE: HOW TO COPE" will be presented by Susan Armstrong on Monday, November 3 and "THE MID-LIFE CRISIS AND THE FUTURE" will be discussed by Olga Kreisberg on Monday, Nov. 10.

The series will close with a discussion of "DEPRESSION" by Dr. Paul Susman on Monday, Nov. 17.

THE LIBRARY WILL BE CLOSED ON LABOR DAY, SEPTEMBER 1 AND ON THANKSGIVING, NOVEMBER 27.
